

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF INDIANA
HAMMOND DIVISION

IN RE: )
 )
JOSEPH WILLIAM GENSEL and )
KATHY JEAN GENSEL, ) CASE NO. 09-23291 JPK
 ) Chapter 13
Debtors. )

ORDER REGARDING FILED DOCUMENT

On August 25, 2009, the clerk docketed as Record Entry Number 13, a document which includes correspondence dated August 20, 2009 under the signature of Sandra K. Goss, Fiscall Officer of Tri-Creek School Corporation. This document requests that the court not discharge a debt alleged to be owed by the debtors to Tri-Creek School Corporation for "delinquent text book rental and class fees."

First, Tri-Creek School Corporation is not a "natural" person within the meaning of N.D.Ind.L.B.R. B-9010-1(h), and due to that fact it must be represented by an attorney in any matter it presents to the court. Second, the correspondence states no grounds whatsoever with respect to exception of the alleged debt from discharge:<sup>1</sup> the court expects a professional creditor such as Tri-Creek School Corporation, which undoubtedly has legal counsel to whom matters of this nature can be referred, to address those matters to their counsel before filing a totally frivolous document with the court. The Court does not expect to see anything of the nature of the foregoing correspondence from Tri-Creek School Corporation on its dockets ever again.

IT IS ORDERED that the Court will take no action with respect the foregoing correspondence, and that whatever relief was requested by it is denied without prejudice.

Dated at Hammond, Indiana on September 9, 2009.

/s/ J. Philip Klingeberger
J. Philip Klingeberger, Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court

Distribution:
Debtors, Attorney for Debtors, Trustee, US Trustee, Creditor

---

<sup>1</sup> Moreover, objections to discharge must be presented to the court in an adversary proceeding; Fed.R.Bankr.P. 7001(4)/(6).